

Iowa Yearly Meeting (IAYM) is seeking qualified applicants for the position of General Superintendent. This is a full-time position that will be located in Oskaloosa, Iowa. The ideal candidate for General Superintendent would have the following qualifications:

- A. must be a committed Christian, member of Friends, and have the ability to share his/her personal relationship with Jesus Christ effectively;
- B. be able to serve as “pastor to the pastors” – advise support, counsel and encourage pastors of IAYM;
- C. must have experience as an administrator and supervisor;
- D. be able to communicate effectively the vision and to promote ministries of IAYM;
- E. must understand and affirm the beliefs of Friends as stated in the IAYM Discipline including the Richmond Declaration of Faith and Iowa Yearly Meeting personnel policy handbook;
- F. be an open-minded, tactful individual who demonstrates a love for, and the ability to work well with all people;
- G. have a minimum of bachelor’s degree from an accredited four year institution of higher learning;
- H. feel called to this position;
- I. have an interest in the growth and development of youth and young adults of Iowa Yearly Meeting;
- J. serve as a member of the FUM General Board by representing IAYM Friend's perspective.

A job description and application form can be obtained by contacting the IAYM office by email at office@iaym.org.

Applications will be received through May 30, 2021.