Keynote Speaker Alan Weinacht

Alan is a 1981 graduate of Barclay College. He served in Indiana Yearly Meeting as pastor for 14 years and then as the General Superintendent for 5 years. Alan is currently the pastor at Greenleaf Friends in Greenleaf, Idaho. This is part of Northwest Yearly Meeting.

Alan and his wife, Margie, have been married for 31 years. They have four children, three grandchildren and a rabbit.

In the fun department, he enjoys camping and trout fishing, followed by bicycling and gardening. History is his favorite reading subject.

The part of pastoral ministry that he enjoys most is to be able to offer what he has learned through experience and formal education to help others be successful in life and service to the kingdom of God. The part of ministry he likes least is cleaning his desk.

Young Friend's Yearly Meeting

SURVIVAL CAMP - GOD'S WAY!!

Calling all youth of the Iowa Yearly Meeting - come and learn some survival skills and gain some experience in navigating waters, building shelters, fire building, tracking & trapping and survival cooking. Also come learn how to survive being a Christian young person in a world that hates who you are and wants to drag you down. We will learn to use a compass to find our way in the wilderness and how to use Jesus as our compass in navigating our way in a world of darkness. So come and learn and make new friends as well as have time with old ones.

Craig Marshall - Director

Children's Yearly Meeting

The theme for this year's Children's Yearly Meeting will be

"Mission Possible"!

All activities are being organized and presented by Hannah and Zach Gourley. They are experienced with Child Evangelism Fellowship and they attend Honey Creek-New Providence Friends Church.

Missions Banquet - Speaker Trish Edwards-Konic

Trish Edwards-Konic has just returned from spending over 3 months researching a book on the Ramallah Friends School, entitled "Enduring Hope: The Impact of the Ramallah Friends School". Conducting interviews with alumni and former and current staff, she has identified ways RFS provides hope and impacts the world.

She is presently Editor of Quaker Life magazine and Friends United Press. She spent over 20 years in pastoral ministry and served at College Avenue Friends as well as churches in Rocky Mountain, Indiana and Wilmington Yearly Meetings. She is a recorded minister, married to Dan and has two sons, Mike and Rick.
