The Iowa Friend

Iowa Yearly Meeting: Spreading Like Prairie Grass to Make the Love of Jesus Christ Known in the Heartland and Beyond

Celebrating our 150th Year!

William Penn University Campus Ministry Program

Since December, campus ministry has had various meetings that met with varied success. We continue to travel and serve at different meetings, and have done more speaking this year than in the past. After serving at Fairfield Friends Church, Lower Grove Church, Gateway Nazarene, and College Avenue, we are still looking for more opportunities.

Our interns have been effective in working together through the many adjustments we have needed to make this semester because of snow storms, basketball championships, and Spring break. There have been a few cancellations of speakers and events that came up on us suddenly this year, but we rolled with the changes.

We led worship at the spring break outreach we attended. We have led music at College Avenue Friends church once a month this year.

Highlights of the ministry this semester include a snow storm that hit the campus and classes were cancelled. The student leaders met and followed through with their planned service project anyway. Campus ministry students were offering pizza, praying with students, and literally taking out their garbage. Our Spring break this year was spent serving in St. Louis. WPU students joined others from St. Louis, Coe College, and Kennesaw State in Atlanta Georgia who had the same break as us. Together we ate, laughed, and played as we served the homeless, refugees from Iraq, and potentially homeless widows. As well as painting, building a podium, picking up trash, and talking to the neighbors.

Different student leaders stepped up their game this year. Our typical week begins with a prayer meeting led by one of the interns on Sunday nights. Together we review the details of the past week and set agendas for the following week. An intern, Dylan Westrick, was asked to take a role as a guitar player in a praise band for a local church. Robert Radcliff spoke at a few meetings and church events. Jamorsay Lambert has been writing rap songs inspired by and Bible verses like Psalm 143. Elias Thury and Dylan Westrick are behind him backing him up on their acoustic guitars. Bailey Morrison has offered a much needed perspective on team decisions. Elias Thury considers a large part of his ministry to befriending through offering rides off campus. These leaders are now leading new Bible Studies and other meetings.

WE'RE MOVING!!!

Concert under the stars

For many decades when Bangor Liberty Friends held it's outdoor concert, it was always on the third Sunday of July. In order to make of more comfortable, especially now for our afternoon performers, we have decided to move the concert to Sunday, September 8. Please make sure that you reserve the afternoon and/or evening to enjoy some great music in the great outdoors. We will get more details about the day when we get closer to it.

Youth from Stuart Friends Church

Our church recently sponsored a couple of fund-raising activities. We sold homemade cookie dough (frozen) and the proceeds went to Barbers in Belize $100---Martins in Cambodia $100--Life Care Pregnancy Center in Stuart $100. This was in Jan. 2013 and we have since sold $60 which is going towards kids camp funds. The young people held a soup supper/ bake sale 3-16-13 and raised $251.50 after paying for rent on hall, and advertisement. This money is going towards kids camp fees also.

This picture is of some of our young people who served the soup supper and participated in the bake sale. From left to right--Becky Jones--Jenny Jones--Dakota Weesner-- Ashleigh Weesner--Katherine Beggs--Michael Beggs.They really had a great time serving. We have 4 more young people who attend church also, but were not able to help. We use to have only 4 young people , so it is a blessing to have more now.

The church of the future is in our young people and in the fact that we all need to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

FAITH DRIVEN...COMMUNITY FOCUSED

A Message from Paul And Jennifer Daniel on upcoming
Marriage Enrichment Retreat,
Yours Faithfully

Marriage is all about educating ourselves that there is a person that is more valuable than we are. We become selfless versus selfish. In so doing, marriage, then, is not about finding the right person as your soul mate in life; it is being the right person for your spouse.

Today, the biblical marriage has been hijacked by our societal norms and couples are making hasty decisions to terminate this covenant. The question "Why Did I Get Married?" is asked by husbands and wives frequently.

This question gives us the opportunity to reevaluate our marriage and take the pulse of our current relationship.

Yours Faithfully will give marriages a chance to identify areas of growth and areas of strength to build a Christ-centered relationship "till death do us apart."

Spring Ideas to “Live Love”

Genuine love and compassion for God and others is what attracts people to the Gospel and thus to our church family.

April

- Celebrate National Library Week - April 14-20. Drop off a card of appreciation and encouragement along with some Hugs & Kisses for the staff and volunteers. Leave $10 at the desk with instructions for it to be used for the next person who needs to pay a fine. Leave a card with your church name.
- Prayer Walk around your community – simply pray for each home and/or business you pass.
- Give flower seed packets to retired couples or those widowed as a sign of hope for the future.
- In honor of National Poetry Month copy a favorite humorous poem and mail it to someone who needs a laugh. You could also post it on Facebook for many to enjoy.
- Spring clean your clothes closet. Give away what you are not using to charity groups.
- Buy sidewalk chalk. Take it to a park and pass it out for kids to decorate the walkways.

"Forgive and give as if it were your last opportunity. Love like there's no tomorrow, and if tomorrow comes, love again." (Max Lucado, Every Day Deserves a Chance)

These suggestions can be done as a family, individual or with a small group. You might want to print a few in your church bulletin each week.

Acts of love and kindness that can be expressed to children & youth

A special surprise one adult and 1 kid “date” at the restaurant of their choice.
Let them help you do something you normally do alone, even though it will take longer.
Plan a special day trip (children’s museum, park, large mall, music concert, ballgame, etc.)
Buy a funny card or write a letter and put it in the mail. Everyone loves getting personal mail.
Buy a book that was your favorite at their age and give it or read it to them.
Take a ball to the park and invite whoever is there to play with you.
Invite a child who’s grandparents don’t live nearby to be your adopted grandchild.
Share a skill you have acquired through the years with a child who has that interest.
Send cards to all the kids in your church on their birthdays. Include a note about how you enjoy watching them grow.

What if your church really embraced the idea of letting God’s love flow out into your community? What if you started loving God so much that you let what he feels for the people in your community overflow into your heart? Wouldn’t that be something?

Though it may not seem like you or your church can make much of a difference, God has entrusted you with the power to give thousands a taste of Jesus and awaken their thirst...So let’s give our all—heart, soul, mind, and strength—as we invest in something that lasts forever, the people Jesus loves and died for. It’ll be fun. We promise! This article was adapted from, Outflow: Outward-Focused Living in a Self-Focused World (Group).
