

The Iowa Friend

June 2013

Vol. 68 No. 6

The 2013 IAYM Annual Ministry Conference will be hosted at the MTC building (Musco Technology Center) at William Penn University. This is a fantastic space with ground level access to the atrium, convenient parking with access to the city bike trail, handicap restrooms and easy access elevator to the upper level!

On Friday afternoon we will go to the PAC (Penn Activity Center) for lunch & dinner and have our afternoon workshop sessions. All parking spots on the circle drive (between PAC and Penn Hall) will be reserved that day for those needing easy access to building. All areas are easy access with elevator and handicap restrooms on each level

College Avenue Friends will graciously host our evening worship services as well as the Friday morning continental breakfast, memorial service, and our 150th Celebration Service with Greg Hinshaw.

Market Street Hall

On Campus Lodging

Each unit is arranged suite style with common area. 2 bedroom private bath for couples OR 4 bedroom semi-private bath with a separate sink area in each bedroom for individual housing. Also, a small sink area/kitchenette is in the common area of the suite.

Saturday Banquet Speaker

Judith Ngoya

Judith Ngoya serves as Administrative Assistant for the African Ministries Office in Kisumu, Kenya. Judith's responsibilities include leadership training in Kenyan yearly meetings, pastoral counseling, and office communications to yearly meetings and partner projects.

CONCERT of PRAYER

Join us for the third Yearly Meeting-wide Concert of Prayer on Friday evening, August 2nd at 6:30 pm following Ron Bryan's address. We've been praying in area meetings for God to lead us from Intimacy to Purity, to Unity and Power. This united gathering will focus on Power.

"Call to me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know."

Jeremiah 33:3

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Doug Shoemaker has served as General Superintendent of Indiana Yearly Meeting since 2005. He began his pastoral ministry at age 20 in Indiana Yearly Meeting. After graduating from Huntington College (now Huntington University) he pastored in Western Yearly Meeting for over 26 years. He and his wife, Kris, live near Sheridan Indiana and enjoy their three children and two grandchildren.

Dr. Greg Hinshaw has served as Presiding Clerk of Indiana Yearly Meeting since 2008. He is a public school superintendent in Randolph County, Indiana, where he has lived his entire life. He is a long-time student of Quaker history and has published books, articles, and chapters on local, Quaker, and educational topics. He and his wife, Katie, live on the family farm, near Farmland, Indiana, with their son, Will. They attend Bear Creek Friends Church, where Greg's family has been in membership since it was founded.

Prayer Labyrinth available at College Avenue Friends

What's a Prayer Labyrinth?

Find out by taking the steps up one flight from the north entrance at College Avenue Friends Church or by the elevator to the 3rd Floor Youth Room.

Nine carefully planned prayer stations have been set up. Each one is designed for you to have a personal, private time with God. To experience it, allow at least 30 minutes to spend in prayer and meditation. Information for setting one up in your church is available from the Missions Committee.

J.A.M. (Children's Yearly Meeting) will be exploring the theme of Yearly Meeting during their "JAM" sessions. Each day will have a daily theme!

Intimacy—Purity—Unity—Power

Make sure to pack some swimwear for your child(ren).

Connie Klaas will be the Director.

Lunch included all days!

JAM will be headquartered at College Avenue Friends.

Our Workshops Include:

Tanzania Project

Presented by Ron Bryan

This workshop will be to explain the idea behind an effort being begun from Iowa Yearly Meeting to help plant/sponsor new Friends Churches in Southern Tanzania and Northern Malawi. What began from a visit in 2010 by Lloyd Stangeland, Ron Bryan, and John Muhangi to the southern region of Tanzania to meet and share with some new churches in the Iringa, Mbeya, Kyela cities has now been confirmed with support from Iowa with funds from two families and one church to initiate an effort to provide a livelihood for their families while also making it possible to reach out to new families with the Gospel message of Jesus Christ.

What began just a few years ago, is now developing into a network of Friends churches, five in Tanzania and two in Malawi, who wish to be associated with Friends United Meeting and their brothers and sisters in Kenya, Uganda and Sudan. Special blessing will be the Judith Ngoya - Kisumu Staff person was able to visit these churches the first part of May— will be here for our Yearly Meeting sessions.

"The Perfect Church: A New Perspective for Church Revitalization."

Topics will include:

- A biblical definition of "the perfect church"
- Defining Sabbath Rest for the local Church
- What is the "intended end" for the Church?
- How is the small Church is positioned for greatness in American culture?
- Cultural expectations and ecclesiastical myths placed on the local Church

Adrian Halverstadt, is currently serving as Leadership Facilitator of EFC-Rocky Mountain Yearly Meeting and Chancellor of Barclay College. He teach theology and leadership classes for Barclay College and served as a part time instructor for Malone University.

He is married to Lisa Rea Halverstadt (34 years this June) and is a recorded Friends pastor (1988) in EFC-ER. He has served in pastoral ministry in Indiana, Ohio, and in Kansas.

Friday Afternoon

Mission Large Group Session

There are 5 different missions that will have time to share about their ministries.

Sam Barber with Belize Friends School

The Martins ministry team

Living Water Friends Church—DSM

International Friends Church—MPLS

Cuban Yearly Meeting—A member from the Cuban Yearly Meeting will be here to share.

Youth and Young Adult Ministries

On Friday afternoon we will have our new Youth and Young Adult Director lead a workshop. It is a time to share the vision of this ministry.

LIVE LOVE Project

Panel Discussion

Our Christian Education Board will be leading a session on Friday afternoon as a follow up to their year-long project entitled "LIVE LOVE"

Come share how your local meeting used this seasonal resource tool and hear from the board on the feedback they received. This workshop will be offered on Friday afternoon only.

Let's Grow Together: Jeff Swartzentruber, Everence Regional Director for Iowa, will present for discussion and story-telling, examples of "The Vine" planning tools. One is for Individuals and Families and one is for Congregations. Jeff will introduce the tools, then discuss the concepts and approach to help you think about your personal Faith values/passions/dreams/goals in the context of connecting your Faith to your financial decisions. This wholistic approach also translates to your Monthly Meeting where the outcomes and related services and ideas may be different, yet still relevant

This workshop will be offered during the Thursday morning workshop session only.
