Joshua 1:6-9 (Living Bible)

6 "Be strong and brave, for you will be a successful leader of my people; and they shall conquer all the land I promised to their ancestors. 7 You need only to be strong and courageous and to obey to the letter every law Moses gave you, for if you are careful to obey every one of them, you will be successful in everything you do. 8 Constantly remind the people about these laws, and you yourself must think about them every day and every night so that you will be sure to obey all of them. For only then will you succeed. 9 Yes, be bold and strong! Banish fear and doubt! For remember, the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

YEARLY MEETING SESSIONS
JULY 29 – AUGUST 1

Some highlights for everyone to see and consider: First we are quickly approaching our annual sessions and this year we are returning to the Friday night Recording Service, when Robert Talbot, Randy Nichols and Rick Bachman will be presented.

On Thursday afternoon we will be holding another large-group World Café and have Dr. Adrian Halverstadt and Dr. Royce Frazier with us to help lead that time. We want to see what God has been revealing to all of you since one year ago when we began this process. The question for us to consider is, "Who are we and where are we being led as a Yearly Meeting?"

Another group project that is being planned this week is a Dorm Welcome Packs to be distributed at William Penn on move in day, which is August 22. There is another increase in new and returning students at William Penn University, room space is being maxed out and we would like to send a message to everyone that the Quakers of Iowa Yearly Meeting care and want to make them feel welcomed. More details will be announced soon.

This will be the last Annual Meeting message on Wednesday evening for your General Superintendent, Ron Bryan. There will be a new Superintendent announced soon. We hope in the fall of this year we will all welcome the new Superintendent, but no dates have been finalized for that transition.

Two of our own pastors will be bringing keynote messages on Thursday evening and Friday morning. Todd Follette and Arlen Daleske have agreed to bring those messages. There will be additional exciting reports and announcements during our sessions.

~Ron Bryan, General Superintendent
