

Ministry Conference of Iowa Yearly Meeting

July 26—July 29
William Penn University

{Our God}
IS ABLE TO DO exceeding abundantly above
ALL THAT WE ask OR imagine.
—Ephesians 3:20

“Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.” (Ephesians 3:20-21, NIV)

The passage from Ephesians 3:20 will be the theme verse to remind us that we serve an Awesome God! When we study the Bible, we see that God has much more in mind than what we currently experience. Meditate on these verses for a moment:

*“And we...are being transformed into his (the Lord’s) likeness with ever-increasing glory...”
2 Corinthians 3:18 (NIV)*

*“For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of His Son...”
Romans 8:29 (NIV)*

*“...he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.”
Philippians 1:6b (NIV)*

At our annual gathering, we will be challenged to align our plans with God’s plan for our lives and for the direction of our churches. We will begin to see how we can impact the communities in which are churches are located.

Each day, there will be a theme or focus for the day. These come from lyrics in the song Thrive by Casting Crowns.

Plan now to join us for our annual conference where we will enjoy the fellowship of the gathering of Friends, share in the work of Iowa Yearly Meeting, and see how God would transform us to Thrive in the coming days. Even if you are unable to attend the entire conference, plan to join us for evening services or other portions to participate in the greater community of Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends Churches.

Revival Testimonies

from Around the World

~Let us continue to pray for Revival in Iowa Yearly Meeting!

Samy and Eman Awad were called to serve as missionaries in America from Egypt through a dream. Their hearts are for revival, sharing the Gospel and making disciples. They relate well with others who are not originally from the United States and God is changing hearts as they reach out to refugees and immigrants through English classes, Bible reading, and the Jesus film. Disciple, Summer, 2017--The Navigators

A young girl, Sanna, who went to Montenegro, a small country in Eastern Europe, through cru (a college campus ministry group) had a conversation with a fiery student she met shortly after arriving. That student talked about how she saw herself failing in life--being impatient with her sister, easily angered when things didn't go her way and really hard to love most people. She told Sanna she wanted to be different but couldn't call herself a Christian until she was different. They talked together about God's grace that while we were yet sinners, he died for us. They talked about how the Holy Spirit works in our lives through a growth process. As the student reflected on her life, she matter-of-factly said: "if this is what it means to be a Christian, then I think I became one last week when I was talking to God in my room." It is said in the world of aftercare to sex - trafficking victims that 80% is relationship building, 20% is fancy programming. With that said WOR, as much as possible, finds time to connect and offer bonds of love to each participant through treating them with dignity and as the valuable people that they are.

Thursday Evening Worship

In a remote area of Vietnam, where the green rice fields fill the countryside. A small newborn baby was taken to a rural orphanage.

On the other side of the world, in America, the Tarr family was a typical All-American family. The year was 2005. God had been preparing to show this family a hole in their hearts for a special little girl. That little girl was born in Tam Ky, Vietnam, south of Da Nang. In 2006, this baby girl was united with her forever family that God had planned for her all along. Through the adoption process, God opened up the eyes of the Tarr family to the poverty and disparity of Vietnam. He also laid a heavy burden for the forgotten children of Vietnam.

IAYM Annual Memorials

Local Meetings on Ministry and Counsel are to prepare memorials for deceased members who have, in their judgment, made an outstanding spiritual contribution to the church and who have served faithfully in places of leadership. Please present these memorials to the Monthly Meeting for approval and then send on to the Yearly Meeting Office (Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends at office@iaym.org.) Mary will scan the memorial and forward to IAYM M&C.

IAYM M&C will compile all memorials submitted since last year's Memorial Service. M&C will then lead the Memorial Service on the Friday morning of the current Yearly Meeting.

If you have any memorials to submit this year, please send them prior to July 15, 2017. Thank you.

Ministry Conference 2017

CHURCH IN ACTION

This year we will be giving each church a copy of the book "101 Ways to Reach your Community". On Thursday afternoon we will divide into several groups and look through the book to choose an outreach activity for the following day. Each group will have access to a small amount of funds to help with their chosen outreach.

Then on Friday afternoon we will venture into Oskaloosa to serve the community with the Love of Christ! Our evening worship will be a time of Worship and celebration of giving to the local community through service!

Our hope is that these types of local work/service ideas will spur your imagination about ways to be a light to your local communities. Make sure to pack along some work clothes!
