Live at a Higher Level

General Superintendent,
Tom Showalter

Welcome to 2021, you survivors of 2020!! You made it through, arguably, one of the most difficult years of your lives. However, before we celebrate too rambunctiously, keep in mind that we really do not know how this year will be any different than last. Sorry to burst your proverbial bubble...

Several weeks ago, as I was writing a prayer request in the weekly mailing, I found myself feeling challenged to consider the rich heritage of Friends and our testimony as disciples of Jesus Christ. Even though many of the variables in a new year are unknown, there is still an expectation that those of us in the Church will act and behave in ways that are pleasing to the Lord. Colossians 3:17, NIV: "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

The early Friends were known to implement the SPICES into their lives (Simplicity, Peacemakers, Integrity, Community, Equality, and Stewardship). As I have previously written, these elements are crucial and needed in our world today. Regardless of what is happening around us, "...we are Christ's ambassadors..." (2 Corinthians 5:20) and our behavior should reflect that high calling. Stephen Covey, in The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People, conveys the idea that "between stimulus and response, we have a choice."

I'd like to challenge you for 2021 to live at a higher level than you did in 2020. Although chaos may be prevalent in your community (physically or online), choose to live as the ambassador of Jesus that you are. If we hope to impact the communities in which we worship, show those around you the difference Christ has made in your life. Love the Lord your God and Love your neighbor! Love God, Serve People, and Make Disciples!

As I wrote in a recent "News You Can Use":

- In the midst of the pandemic, pray that we will have learned to be a Simpler people because we trust God to give us our daily bread
- In the midst of divisiveness and contentiousness, seek the Prince of Peace and be a people of Ppeace

January's IAYM Mission Board Emphasis

Providential

Homes

Eldora Iowa

"The Christian who is pure and without fault, from God's point of view, is the one who takes care of the orphans and widows, and who remains true to the Lord- not soiled and dirtied by his contacts with the world." James 1:27

The above verse is not all encompassing as a leading for every follower of Christ, but it is the foundation of a ministry known as Providential Homes.

Providential Homes was found a little over 10 years ago in response to a statement made by a member of Honey Creek-New Providence Friends. In casual conversation, this teacher mentioned that one of her students was living out of a car in Eldora. It struck me speechless for a moment. My mind raced, (Out of a car? In Eldora?). That kind of thing happens in Chicago, or New York, maybe in Des Moines, but Eldora, Iowa?

A group was formed to see where God would lead in meeting this need. Through prayer and discussion, it was determined we could do something, albeit not eradicate the problem, but an answer we could be a part of. We would not push local government to address the situation alone or throw money at it to make it someone else's responsibility. It was up to us to come alongside hurting, despairing people and help them get a fresh start.

Providential Homes got off the ground through generous donations (one of the initial donations was our first house!) The program works at its best when volunteers and future home owners work on the physical structure to make it structurally sound and livable. When the house is ready to be moved into, then the future home owners start to pay back to Providential Homes any legal fees, utility bills, material bills, etc. which have incurred during the refurbishing process. Once the bills and services have been paid back, the house is turned over to the individual(s) who have been involved in the process.

It is not easy work. It is not squeaky clean work, as you have people dealing with people face to face. You learn about abuse, heartache, despair, resentment of the church, etc. But there is always appreciation that there is hope without judgement.

This is not a plea for donations for Providential Homes. Any urge to give out of this should be given to your present mission giving or a local individual. You see, this is a plea to continually support the individuals involved in missions both stateside and abroad. This is a plea to follow through with the Holy Spirit's leading in your life.

Providential Homes is not of the magnitude of Habitat for Humanity. We have turned over two houses; provided safety and security for several individuals for times up to two years; presently have a house resided by a mother and her three children; and have just been offered another house to start this winter. Our work is small, but it is work we can do. Be open to the leading you can do.

I am uncomfortable when it is implied that we should leave mission work to missionaries until I embrace the fact that if I am a follower of Christ, I am a missionary wherever I am, whatever I do. So are you.

Thanks!
Arlen Daleske
